New York Fashion Week (NYFW) has wrapped up but the excitement of runway shows and fantastic parties lingers on. Broadwayworld.com was at a private event at Beautique, the upscale restaurant in Midtown Manhattan. Guests celebrated the cover of Social Life Magazine featuring Sonja Morgan and anti-aging and stem cell specialist, Doctor Christopher Calapai.

Sonja Morgan is one of the renowned stars on Real Housewives of New York. The event also showcased her gorgeous fashion designs, the "Sonja Morgan New York collection."

With the cocktail party in full swing, we had the opportunity to chat with both and Morgan and Calapai and ask them about their favorite drinks. We love to find out about the mixes our favorite people prefer

Dr. Calapai told us that his top drink is Grey Goose straight up, dirty with olives. He especially likes his olives stuffed with blue cheese to give the vodka that extra zip.

Sonja Morgan's cocktail of choice is a Dirty Martini. She also said that she likes Jose Cuervo tequila and enjoys the spirit in mixes. Morgan also enjoys the "bubbles of Prosecco."
